

Quick as heck-Chocolate Chip Cookie Bars...

First you're busy as heck and you don't really have time to make this totally from scratch with all kinds of precise measurements so here's the quickie way...

1 Nestle tub tollhouse cookie dough

1 bag coconut flakes

1 can of sweetened condensed milk

1 pkg. of either walnuts, pecans

1 pkg. of Nestle tollhouse chocolate chips (milk, dark or white) heck, mix it up if ya like!
The more the merrier!

1 9x12 in non-stick baking pan

Preheat oven to 325

Now....if you don't have a good non-stick pan you wanna coat the pan with some that PAM non-stick cooking spray stuff—or cooking oil or whatever...

Take your cookie dough (room temp) and spoon it into the pan and press it flat. Only use enough to make the layer about ½ inch thick. Bake for about 8-10 min then remove from oven and allow it to cool. Now open your sweetened condensed milk and drizzle evenly or heavily according to your sweet tooth because this stuff is sweet as heck!! Now....take your walnuts or pecans and crush them (unless you bought chopped nuts; which is much easier) sprinkle evenly, then add an even layer of coconut flakes and top with a light sprinkling of chocolate chips.... Return pan to oven for an additional 4-7 min. Remove and allow to cool before cutting into bars and..... BAM! You're done!

These look and taste like you did a lot of work; but who has time for that!?

You're welcome! 😊
